

Everything You've Always Wanted to Know!

About a Career in Communication Consulting!

Get the lowdown at an alumni panel and reception supported by the CSUS Department of Communication Studies and the Communication Studies Alumni Chapter

What: NETS (Networking: Extending Teaching and Scholarship) in conjunction with the Communication Studies Alumni Chapter will host the fourth in a series of expert panels featuring four alumni of the CSUS Department of Communication Studies on the topic: "Communication Consulting: What? Why? How?"

When: April 3, 2014, from 4:30 PM to 5:30 PM, followed by 30 minutes of Q&A and a 1-hour reception in the Epicure Restaurant in the Union building on the CSUS campus.

Who: Alumni and faculty from all departments are welcome. Four Communication Studies alumni will speak:

- Rachel Castro Jenkins, a brand manager with The Glass Agency in Sacramento, will discuss her experiences entering the job market in communication consulting as a recent graduate.
- Brittany Walters, communication manager at Essex National Securities, will address communication consulting from two perspectives – her current position and as a business owner.
- Christina Ragsdale of the Communications Office of the Sacramento Metropolitan Air Quality Management District will discuss the communication needs of clients from government, non-profit, philanthropy and professional services.
- Larry Culler, a former project manager for Intel, will share his recent experiences starting up his own communication-consulting business.

RSVP to Mark Stoner: stoner1@csus.edu (NETS IV in subject line) or call (916) 307-2926. See our NETS wiki for current and past sessions:

<http://comnets.wikispaces.com/>